

How to Become A Beach Volleyball Official v8.1

Welcome to Beach Officiating!

We're delighted that you're interested in joining us! We're the Beach Official's Commission of USA Volleyball. We train, evaluate and certify referees for all types of outdoor volleyball, including doubles, triples, fours and sixes, played on both grass and sand surfaces. We support junior, collegiate and professional play.

It's important to note that we are beach officials, not beach referees. To certify for beach officiating, you have to train in all of the officiating roles: lines-judge and scorer, as well as first and second referee!

The following pages will thoroughly describe the requirements for becoming a beach official, and for maintaining your rating. But first, let's take a moment to look at the big picture:

How do you get started?

- Get onto our national USAV Beach-Volley Officiating Mailing List. If you haven't already, please send us a quick email indicating your interest, to info@beachcommission.org.
- Get off to a great start by making use of our online-tools: Go to VolleyballRefTraining.com and look at the Training Materials, Rules & Interpretations, Certifications, and Resource for beach officiating. You'll find presentations, rules comparisons, scoring instruction, and other tools, all online for your at-home convenience!
- Your experience, and your first certification, begin with your home Region. Contact your beach official's chair. (If your region doesn't have a Beach Referee Chair, then contact your Indoor Referee Chair, or your Regional Commissioner.) They will help you find your way to the beach events and local certification clinics in your area.
- If your region doesn't have a program that meets your needs, feel free to contact the national office of Beach Officials Training and Certification: info@beachcommission.org
- The Beach Commission hosts BEACH OFFICIATING TRAINING CAMPS each summer. For more news about our CAMP opportunities, see our articles at VRT and the Official Word. Successful CAMPERS earn Local or Zonal certifications, as appropriate.
- If you're already an experienced beach official, you can certify directly at one of our ZONAL CERTIFICATION CLINICS. Look for announcements posted every April in the Official Word, at VRT or at USA Volleyball.
- To apply for a Certification Clinic or a camp, please use the application form found at VRT

In Review: Use each of these tools in the order that best suits you:

- Mailing List
- Online Study
- Regional events and LOCAL Certification
- Training CAMP
- ZONAL and NATIONAL Certification Clinics

Any questions (or your candidate application) may be addressed to info@beachcommission.org

See you on the sand!

The following pages describe the basic requirements of earning and maintaining each of the Beach certifications:

Becoming a Beach Volleyball Official at the Local Level:

The entry level Beach Volleyball Official certification that is awarded by a Region is a Local Beach Official. Certification and recertification requirements are to be administered by the individual Region. The suggested criteria used for a Local Beach Official are as follows:

I. To obtain certification as a USAV Local Beach Official:

- a. The official must be a regular member of USAV.
- b. The official must successfully pass and maintain USAV background screening if they will be officiating juniors competition.
- c. The official will need to attend a Beach officiating clinic either in person or online every season.
- d. The official will need to take the current Beach officials exam either online or hardcopy. (all exams must be corrected to 100% with rule references).
- e. The official will need to prove proficiency in all portions of Beach officiating (i.e. R1, R2, Scorekeeping, and Line Judge). This proficiency will be measured by practical ratings and observation. These ratings will be conducted at USAV events either in region or nationally. Ratings should be conducted by Beach Officials who hold a Zonal rating or higher.
 - i. Receive one (1) passing rating as an R1.
 - ii. Receive one (1) passing rating as an R2.
 - iii. Receive one (1) passing rating as a Scorer. This requirement can be met by successful use of the USAV Beach score sheet while performing their duties as an R1 or R2.
 - iv. The Official will need to be observed as a Line Judge with feedback provided to ensure that they understand the correct technique.

II. To retain certification as a USAV Local Beach Official:

- a. The official must be a regular member of the RVA or USAV.
- b. The official will need to have successfully passed a background check if they will be officiating Juniors competition.
- c. The official will need to attend a Beach officiating clinic either in person or online.
- d. The official will need to take the current Beach officials exam either online or hardcopy. (all exams must be corrected to 100% with rule references).
- e. Receive a passing rating in the R1, R2 and Scorer positions. These ratings can be obtained at USAV events either in Region or Nationally. The ratings should be provided by Beach Officials who hold a Zonal rating or higher.

Becoming a Beach Volleyball Official at the Zonal Beach Level

The Director for National Beach Officials Evaluation & Certification, upon the recommendation of the National Beach Officials Commission, certifies USAV Zonal Beach & USAV National Beach Officials. In accordance with Article 8, Section B 1 of the Operating Code, all Officials must be a regular member, registered with USA Volleyball for the current season.
